Take a moment to think

Your office washrooms are cleaned regularly, but personal work areas like desktops, keyboards and telephones are rarely ever cleaned. Work stations are surrounded by germs and only increase on a daily basis.

Then think.....How often do we eat at our desks? "Yum"

Manchester Wellness specializes in the testing and cleaning of germ-infested offices paying special attention to equipment that is shared among employees. Reduce absenteeism in the workplace due to illness by 21% with a Workplace Wellness Program.

Contact Paula today at 403.228.4110 to help get you started in maintaining a germ free healthy environment!

Joan Barfoot: Exit Lines

Join us for the launch of Joan Barfoot's new novel, Exit Lines. You might think life in a retirement home would be peaceful, maybe even boring, but in the Idyll Inn of this pithy, provocative and marvelously funny novel, not everyone feels ready for the quiet life. Joan Barfoot is an award-winning novelist whose work has been compared internationally with that of Anne Tyler, Carol Shields, Margaret Drabble and Margaret Atwood.

Alberta Arts Day

Discover, experience & celebrate everything artistic on September 6th

The government of Alberta has declared September 6th as a special day to showcase the province's artists, performers, writers and community events.

The first-ever Alberta Arts Day is a challenge to all Albertans to participate in an arts activities or celebration. The Arts Day Website features suggestions on what to do for Alberta Arts Day.

A free, family-friendly event is scheduled all day at Calgary's Southern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium, featuring a hip hop choreography session and a new media presentation. In the evening, Alberta performers will hit the stage for an evening gala and awards ceremony. Tickets are $15 or $7.50 each for groups larger than 10.

Join the Government of Alberta & the Alberta Foundation Of The Arts in showcasing and celebrating the arts in Alberta!
